DOHA: The Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Authority (QFCRA) has published a Consultation Paper and accompanying draft rules containing miscellaneous amendments to the existing rulebooks.

The amendments deal with time periods, foreign funds, classification of clients, market counterparties and customers, appointment of auditors, payment of insurance money by non-QFC intermediaries and authorised representatives, and various amendments to the Interpretation and Application Rulebook including changes to a number of definitions.

The consultation period for responses is till November 10. More details at: www.qfcra.com/publication/Consultation\_Papers.php
