

QFCRA AUTHORISES MARSH INSURANCE

DOHA, 30th June 2008

The Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Authority (QFCRA) yesterday granted authorisation to Marsh, one of the world's leading insurance brokers and risk advisors. Marsh will be allocated Qatar Financial Centre Licence No 085.

Welcoming Marsh to the QFC, QFCRA Chairman and Chief Executive Phillip Thorpe commented:

“We are pleased to see that the QFC legal and regulatory framework continues to attract the world’s leading financial services firms.”

“We now have 85 financial institutions licensed in the QFC and a strong group of applicants under active consideration.”

“Qatar’s commitment to high standards coupled with recent initiatives such as the NYSE Euronext proposal for the development of the DSM, and the imminent formation of a single financial regulator, continue to add to Qatar’s rapidly growing global status as a financial centre.”
